Glass Up Your Walls Exhibit

Art Glass by Scott Simmons

Art Glass by Colleen Ott

Glass Up Your Walls

Art Glass by Scott Simmons

River's End Gallery presents Scott Simmons from Madison. Scott has a B.S. and M.S. degrees from University of Wisconsin and in 1997 resigned his career as an electron microscopist to work in hand blown glass full time. Scott creates functional pieces from vases and bowls to playful versions of vessels which exploit the fluid nature of the hot glass.

Art Glass by Colleen Ott

River's End Gallery presents Colleen Ott from Madison area. Colleen has a B.S. degree from University of Wisconsin-River Falls and has studied at the Royal College of Art in London, England and received a Master of Fine Arts degree in glass sculpture from University of Wisconsin-Madison. Colleen has received many awards for her work and has been published in numerous magazines, books, and newspapers.

Exhibit runs from February 14 – March 14.

Glass Up Your Walls Exhibit

Art Glass by Martha Kauppi

Art Glass by Jim Sanders

Glass Up Your Walls

Art Glass by Martha Kauppi

River's End Gallery presents Martha Kauppi from Madison. Martha earned a B.A. in studio art from Michigan State University in 1982 and soon after took her first glassblowing class. Almost fifteen years later, glass re-emerged as a strong interest in her life. She uses multiple techniques and materials to bring her vision into tangible form. Martha combines Kiln working, off-hand furnace work, and blowing, flame working, and cold work.

Art Glass by Jim Sanders

River's End Gallery presents Jim Sanders from Waukesha. Jim has a university degree in Forestry but his 20 years of interior decorating and design experience have given him an excellent sense of proportion, design, and color, as well as a wonderful sense of style. Jim began working in glass in 2003 with classes at the Corning Museum of Glass in Corning, N.Y. His work is called "fused glass" which is an ancient art form to which Jim is constantly bringing modern in innovations.

Exhibit runs from February 14 – March 14.

The exhibit begins with a "by invitation only" artist reception on February 14, 4 p.m. – 9 p.m.

Art Glass by Michael RT Hirschmann

Glass Up Your Walls

Art Glass by Matthew Heindl

River's End Gallery presents Matthew Heindl. Matt is from Cazenovia, Wisconsin and has a Bachelors of Fine Arts from University of Wisconsin-River Falls (glass, ceramics, metal). Matt's vessels and vases are multilayered and are like the works of a decorative painter.

Art Glass by Michael RT Hirschmann

River's End Gallery presents Michael RT Hirschmann. Michael has studied glassblowing under some of the best glass artists here in the United States. His artistic education took place at The School of the Art Institute of Chicago (Chicago, IL), Water Street Glassworks (Benton Harbor, MI), and other renowned schools. Michael art consists of blown glass vases, bowls, plates, glasses, and sculptural objects of beauty.

Exhibit runs from February 14 – March 14.
