Gallery to Show Works by Peter Westermann
Waukesha Art Crawl Open House and Reception

Waukesha, December 13, 2006 – The accomplished artist, Peter Westermann, will be at the River's End Gallery during the Waukesha Art Crawl on Saturday, February 3, 2007 from 4 – 10 p.m.

Westermann, who was born in Milwaukee, grew up in West Allis and Waterford. He is currently a 5th year student earning his bachelors degree in Art and Design at Carroll College. Recently, he did artwork for the well known hard rock band, Tool. His art was featured on the front cover of Madison's Maximum Ink Magazine for a special issue featuring an interview with the lead singer. His illustration skills include drawing, geometric shapes, digital art and design, and video editing. He is now a full time artist and designer, taking classes part time in order to focus on his work before he graduates.

“Peter will share his unique perspectives and techniques from concept to completion. In addition we will host a reception and selected items will be reduced, all to increase the enjoyment of those who attend,” explained Joan Skimmons, owner of River's End Gallery.

About River's End Gallery

The gallery caters to individuals and corporations looking for larger pieces of art. It carries the finest artists who create large paintings. Although many of these artists are from Wisconsin, the gallery also serves artists from Florida, Texas, Illinois, Minnesota, Virginia, and California. The gallery offers sculpture, art glass, art jewelry, smaller paintings, and prints. Many of the artists will create commissioned works for buyers with specialized interests. The works on display include water and landscapes, architectural, floral, figures, people in environments, and animals.
