Waukesha Boutique Gallery Hosts Lee Hill's Unique Art
River's End Gallery Artist Reception on March 28

Waukesha, WI, March 11, 2010 – The River's End Gallery announced today an exciting one day artist event. Lake Geneva artist, Lee Hill, will offer a "sneak preview" of her latest paintings from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday, March 28, at the River's End Gallery, 380 W. Main St., Waukesha.

The watercolorist will be on hand to talk about her 2010 works. Among these are "Cyber City," a collage featuring recycled electronic parts, and "Chang Dynasty," a contemporary three-dimensional watercolor that hearkens back to ancient cultures.

Hill has been a fine artist since 1973. In the 1980s she developed an assemblage technique in which builds watercolors into three dimensions and embellishes them with wire, metal rings and bars, paper, glass and/or found objects. Her "organic art," which echoes the natural world and its diverse cultures, consciously reflects harmony, balance and the wisdom of recycling.

For more information about the artist or the event, call River's End Gallery at (262) 896-8875.

About River's End Gallery

The gallery carries a variety of works for all interests and hosts special exhibits throughout the year. Although many of these artists are from Wisconsin, the gallery also serves artists from Florida, Texas, Illinois, Minnesota, Virginia, and California. The gallery offers sculpture, art glass, art jewelry, large and small paintings, and a few prints. Many of the artists will create commissioned works for buyers with specialized interests. The works on display includes abstracts, water and landscapes, architectural, floral, figures, people in environments, and animals.

River's End Gallery, located in Historic Downtown Waukesha at 380 W. Main Street. Free parking is available behind the gallery in Clinton Street parking lot.
