River's End Gallery Offers Gift to Families Affected by the Flooding Fox River Rose to Unprecedented Heights with No Impact on Gallery

Waukesha, WI, June 12, 2008 – The River's End Gallery announced that it was not affected by the flooding Fox River and is open for business as usual. The gallery is located on the Fox River and is separated from the river by the Clinton Street parking lot. The redevelopment of the river walk in this area was high enough to ensure that the river never overflowed its bank.

The owners and staff of the gallery wish the best for the families who were affected by the flooding and are offering a $100 Gallery gift certificate to Waukesha County families who suffered flooding in their homes. Photographic proof of flooding damage is required.

“It seems to me, despite what the officials are saying, most downtown Waukesha businesses survived the Fox River flooding waters with little or no damage,” explained Joan Skimmons, owner, River's End Gallery. “Presently the gallery's special exhibit is called “Escape to the Sea” which is an exhibit of waterscapes and water related artworks; what a coincidence.”

About River's End Gallery

The gallery carries a variety of works for all interests and hosts special exhibits monthly. Although many of these artists are from Wisconsin, the gallery also serves artists from Florida, Texas, Illinois, Minnesota, Virginia, Ukraine, and California. The gallery offers sculpture, art glass, art jewelry, large and small paintings, and some prints. Many of the artists will create commissioned works for buyers with specialized interests. The works on display include water and landscapes, architectural, floral, figures, people in environments, and animals.

River's End Gallery, located in Historic Downtown Waukesha at 380 W. Main Street. Free parking is available behind the gallery in Clinton Street parking lot.
